

Some Websites to Use at Home

Kahoot (interactive multiple choice)

<https://kahoot.com/>

<https://kahoot.com/study/>

ABC Splash

<https://education.abc.net.au/home-old> (thousands of free, curriculum-linked resources)

BTN Behind the News (current affairs)

<https://www.abc.net.au/btn/>

Kidcyber (source of factual information for junior students)

<https://www.kidcyber.com.au/>

Kids Konnect (factual information...basic: free, better: subscription)

<https://kidskonnect.com/>

Science Kids (fun science and technology activities)

<https://www.sciencekids.co.nz/>

Science for kids (online science network)

<https://www.scienceforkidsclub.com/>

Spell City (subscription available)

<https://www.spellingcity.com/>

Taronga TV (Zoo animals and virtuals)

<https://taronga.org.au/taronga-tv>

National Geographic for Kids (general knowledge)

<https://www.natgeokids.com/au/>

History for Kids (online History network)

<https://www.historyforkids.net/>

BBC History for Kids (online History network)

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/forkids/>

Geography for Kids (lots of Geography facts)

<https://www.kids-world-travel-guide.com/geography-facts.html>

San Francisco Orchestra for Kids (learning about music)

<http://www.sfskids.org/>

Musical Appreciation for Kids (activities linked to music)

<https://www.classicsforkids.com/>

Art for Kids Hub (Art lessons for kids)

<https://www.artforkidshub.com/>

Museum of Contemporary Art Sydney (discussing art with children)

<https://www.mca.com.au/plan-your-visit/kids-and-families/>

Scroll to: Tips for looking at art with kids

Tate Art Gallery (creating, exploring, games and quizzes for art)

<https://www.tate.org.uk/kids>

Art Appreciation for Kids (looking at a selection of art works)

<https://artclasscurator.com/a-year-of-art-appreciation-for-kids-52-artworks-your-child-should-know/>